Forecast for Saturday 18 Sep 2021

Weather: Low cloud and mist around to start, though this will lift through the morning. A chance of some brighter intervals developing into the afternoon, but also showers that could be heavy at times, with a small chance of the odd one turning thundery. These showers should give way to a band of more persistent rain edging eastwards through the evening and overnight.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 600m: 20% at first, increasing to 60% by the afternoon rising to 80% by the late afternoon

Visibility: Poor across most hills at first, with cloud obscuring tops above 400-500m, and occasionally as low as 300m, and some mist patches possible in valleys. This lifting during the morning, with generally good visibility. Visibility remaining poor above 600-700m at times with patchy cloud. Moderate visibility in showers.
